

LOUGH DERG

the winning combination

Lough Derg is the perfect base to tick off your bucket list of Irish adventures. Just a short journey away from our infamous Wild Atlantic Way, Cliffs of Moher and the wonderful Galway City; a quick hop over to Dublin to check out the Guinness Store; and handy for the stunning and unmissable Ring of Kerry.

Whatever brings you to Lough Derg, there are plenty of activities to keep you occupied. With just the right balance of outdoor on and off water activities, great food and entertainment options, and some of the most impressive heritage sights on the island, we think a trip to Lough Derg is a total win.

You can take your pick of cruising along open water on a SUP, kayak or cruiser, or slowing it right down with a outdoor, waterside yoga class. If you're talking high energy, there are plenty of trails to bike and hike which will get the adrenalin pumping. And, whatever shape your day takes, ending it with some great music, craic and food is always an option around Lough Derg.

HERITAGE JUNKIES

Spend some time at the majestic Rock of Cashel for your heritage fix and get a real feel of the long history of this stunning region. This World Heritage site is well worth being at the top of your agenda.

WATER BABIES

Grab a SUP, kayak or your very own cruiser to float around the beautiful Lough Derg, catching the views from a very different vantage point. Go it alone or join in a group to get the lowdown of what not to miss.

OFF ROADERS

Jump on a horse or bike to travel the wooded trails around the Lough at your own speed. Pump up the adrenalin for your exercise fix or take your time and drink in the magical trails and woodland.

HIKE LOVERS

We've got short walks, challenging trails and multi-day hikes with some fabulous views across a variety of counties to make your efforts worthwhile!

HOLDING STILL

Slow down with some waterside yoga or to take in one of Lough Derg's signature sunsets. There's always time and space to still and chill around Lough Derg.

PEOPLE LOVERS

Our best attraction is our people. For story telling, excellent craic and plain old good manners, you'll be make feel welcome wherever you turn.

HUNGRY HORSES

We've got cafes, bars, pubs and restaurants groaning with local produce to suit whatever you fancy. Grab a creamy chowder beside an indoor fire, a quick coffee and cake in a sunny spot or got the whole hog with a entire evening dedicated to trying out the best of local food washed down with our house ambience!
